DESCRIPTION

This 1975 Range Rover is a truly special car. It was supplied new to its only registered keeper on the 18th March 1975 by the local Land Rover agent in Glasgow, Scotland. The history file documents many years of careful maintenance across fifty five thousand miles, despite which by 2018 the car needed a full restoration. The car was comprehensively restored by a "marque specialist" and has covered around a thousand miles since. Finished in its factory colour of Bahama Gold and with Bronze brushed nylon seats it is a window into luxury 1970's motoring. A truly remarkable car, this must be a unique opportunity to buy a car in "as-new" condition, with an outstanding history file and just one documented owner.
