DESCRIPTION

The Land Rover Series II launched in 1958, replacing the ten year old “Series I”. A multitude of improvements were made, most notably the extra width in the body giving the Land Rover its now iconic waistline, which carried on through to the end of Defender production in 2016.The example here is a home-market right hand drive vehicle that is in incredibly original un-restored condition, showing a gentle patina of a vehicle that has had little use in nearly sixty years. The vehicle comes with its original “buff logbook” and has had just three owners since 1967. The vehicle will be supplied with 12 months warranty and roadside assistance.
